

MCKINLEY'S PLANS

Will Visit Cleveland for a Few Days This Week.

HE IS ANXIOUS TO REMAIN QUIET

Will Probably Spend the Greater Part of the Time Until Election Day at His Home in Canton—Opposed to Taking the Stump.

Canton, O., July 20.—The first time since his nomination for the presidency Major McKinley will this week leave Canton and his own home. The pressure upon him to visit other cities for the purpose of making speeches and participating in celebrations of various sorts, has been persistent and strong. Fifty towns wanted Major McKinley on the 4th of July and if he had given heed to half the requests which poured in upon him he would have had scarcely an hour at home since the St. Louis convention. Today Major McKinley expects to go to Cleveland and it is not probable that he will return to Canton before Thursday afternoon. His promise to go to Cleveland to take part in the centennial exercises is of long standing and the occasion is one of dignity and importance, the purpose of it being to observe in a fitting way the one hundredth anniversary of the settlement of the western reserve. Wednesday is Founders' Day, and on that day the formal inauguration ceremonies occur. Major McKinley has not been to Cleveland to remain longer than a few hours for some weeks and he feels that he ought to spend a few days among his host of ardent friends in that city.

Averse to Taking the Stump.

There will be a great many people in Cleveland, too, this week from all parts of the country, and Major McKinley will want to talk to some of them on matters relating to the campaign and its conduct. He leaves the details to Mr. Hanna and the committee in all of whom he has great confidence, but no important step is taken without his advice and consent. After participating in the public functions of Founders' Day at Cleveland, Major McKinley will go to Alliance on the day following to spend a few hours at Mount Union college. This will finish his little tour, and he will be in Canton that night, where he will doubtless remain until he goes to the annual encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic in Minneapolis in September. He may run up to Cleveland occasionally, but it will be for a single night or a few hours only. He does not propose, if he can help it, to be turned from his purpose of spending the time between now and election at his own home. He is still averse to taking the stump, and thinks that there will be no occasion for him to do so.

List of Campaign Orators.

Among those who are expected to speak during the campaign for McKinley are ex-President Harrison, senator J. D. Forsaker, Thomas B. Reed, Senator Thurston, Charles Emory Smith, Henry Cabot Lodge, Gen. Stewart L. Woodford, J. P. McMillen, Senator Sherman, Gov. Hastings and Chauncey M. Depew. Already these men have received letters from scores of cities and committees asking them to make speeches, but it is likely that when the national committee get to work in its headquarters all arrangement for meetings will be made through the medium of its speakers' bureau. Several committees have been to see ex-President Harrison and a number have called upon Senator Forsaker. It is understood that Senator Sherman has promised to go to the Pacific slope and that Gen. Harrison will make a tour through some of the western states.

Wisconsin Gold Delegates.

Milwaukee, Wis., July 20.—Gen. Edward S. Bragg, senator Vilas, James J. Hogan and James G. Plunders, the delegates-at-large from this state to the Chicago convention, held a conference and issued a declaration explaining the action of the delegation in not voting in the convention. As a result of the meeting it is certain that the gold democrats of Wisconsin will put a ticket in the field in the state election, regardless of the bolters in other states. Gen. Bragg is about the only one of the leaders who still believes that the gold men of the state will be able to control the democratic state convention to be held September 5.

National League Games.

BIG VICTORY FOR INSURGENTS.

Spanish Troops Led into a Trap and Many Are Killed.

New York, July 20.—A Herald special from Key West, Fla., says: The Spaniards, under Gen. Suarez Inclan, have sustained a crushing defeat at the hands of the insurgents, under Antonio Maceo, according to advices received by the Cuban revolutionary leaders in this city. Not only was Inclan's column defeated with heavy loss, but the Cuban leaders are informed that it is currently reported in Havana that the Spanish general himself was captured and is now held as a prisoner by Maceo. The battle is said to have occurred on July 15, near Maceo's stronghold in the province of Pinar del Rio. For the last two weeks the insurgents have been very aggressive and small parties have repeatedly attacked the troops, causing the Spaniards much annoyance. Gen. Inclan was ordered to drive back these detached bands of insurgents and for this purpose took with him two thousand men.

Led into a Death Trap.

Maceo seems to have expected such a movement, and arranged to ambush the Spaniards. The Spaniards followed the insurgent skirmishers incautiously and fell into the ambush. Then the Cuban opened fire from all sides, which threw the Spaniards into confusion. While the Spaniards were thus disordered the Cubans charged, completely routing their foes. Gen. Inclan made a desperate effort to rally his demoralized forces, but was surrounded by the Cubans and compelled to surrender. It is said in Havana, according to the revolutionists here, that the Spaniards were pursued almost to the tropics, and lost more than 100 men killed and wounded. There were fourteen officers among the killed. Cubans here also say that Maceo will hold Inclan as a hostage to save the lives of prominent insurgent officers who have been captured by the Spaniards.

Report Given Out by the Government.

Havana, July 20.—According to a report furnished by Gen. Bernal, the troops under his command have achieved a victory over a rebel force at Varona, near Martinis, province of Pinar del Rio. The insurgent losses were forty-one killed and sixty wounded. The troops lost two killed and thirteen wounded. A party of insurgents wrecked a passenger train near Puerto Principe by exploding dynamite on the track. One soldier and one passenger were killed and four soldiers were wounded. A report reaches here that the insurgent leaders Enrique Collazo, Rego Canagney and Calixto Garcia were fired upon by rebels treacherously near Holguin, but escaped unhurt.

GOV. RUSSELL'S REMAINS.

Private Services This Morning and the Body Then Taken to City Hall.

Cambridge, Mass., July 20.—The death of ex-Gov. Wm. E. Russell was touchingly referred to in scores of churches in this city yesterday. The churches were all crowded and appropriate music was rendered, and in many churches the services were devoted wholly to honoring the memory of the dead executive. The body lay in the library of the Russell residence. Two police officers guarded the house all day, but their presence was not needed. Thousands of people passed the house during the day and evening. A wreath of ivy and oak leaves hung from the door knob. The curtains were drawn and not a person was seen in the house. Intimate friends and relatives were allowed to gaze upon the remains. The features looked remarkably life-like. The private services were held at the house at 11 o'clock this morning, after which the body will lie in state in the city hall.

Forest Fires in the Northwest.

Spokane, Wash., July 20.—Forest fires are raging throughout the country north of this city in Washington, Idaho and British Columbia. Millions of feet of timber has already been destroyed and throughout numerous mining camps situated in the path of the fires great damage is being done in the destruction of property. The smoke here is so dense as to almost shut out the sun.

Arrested for Swindling.

Seattle, Wash., July 20.—Charles A. Edwards, son of C. A. Edwards, United States commissioner in Alaska and well known in journalistic circles as the former editor of the Spokane Sunday Sun, was arrested Saturday on the charge of complicity in a swindle by which the Great Northern Railway company has been defrauded of a large sum of money.

Chilian Nitrate Fields To Close.

New York, July 20.—The Herald's special cable from Valparaiso, Chili, says: "At least nine thousand men will be without employment at the end of the current month owing to the stoppage of operations in the nitrate fields. Unless special measures are taken to provide for these men it is feared they will make trouble in the cities."

Populist Nominated for Congress.

Mexico, Mo., July 20.—The ninth congressional district populists have nominated S. O. Sims of Andrain county for congress.

VENEZUELAN CLAIM

Lawyer Storow's Brief Expected To Contain a Sensation.

ENGLAND'S CONTENTIONS DEMOLISHED

Pollock, Salisbury and Other British Lawyers Handled Without Gloves—The Case Changed from One of Defense to Vigorous Aggression.

Washington, July 20.—Something of a sensation in the Venezuelan dispute is expected in a day or two, possibly this afternoon, when a report to the British Blue Book is delivered to the commission and made public simultaneously in this country and England. Up to this time the agents of the Caracas government have contented themselves with putting up evidence before the Venezuelan commission and pointing out the numerous inconsistencies and false deductions in the British case, but since the distinguished Boston lawyer, James J. Storow, has become associated with Counsel Scruggs in Venezuela's behalf the case has been whipped into legal shape and a brief has been prepared which is understood to handle Lord Salisbury, Prof. Pollock and the other British lawyers and diplomats without gloves. It is said that Mr. Storow has utterly demolished the vital points of the British contention, and turned Prof. Pollock's favorite arguments directly against Lord Salisbury's pretensions. In his few months' connection with the case, its entire conduct has been changed from one of defense to that of most vigorous aggression. It is said that Mr. Storow was secured as associate counsel at the suggestion of Secretary Olney, whose classmate he was at Harvard law school. In addition to being the chief legal adviser of the Bell Telephone company and other great corporations, Mr. Storow has always been a deep student of international law and foreign affairs. His library includes one of the few complete sets in this country of the Royal Geographical society publications, and he was a participant on the winning side of the controversy between Dana and Lawrence twenty years ago over the charge of plagiarism in editing Wheaton's international law.

EDWARD S. EARLEY DEAD.

He Officially as Undertaker at the Funeral of President Lincoln.

Asbury Park, N. J., July 20.—Edward S. Earley died yesterday at the summer residence of his daughter, Mrs. S. S. Miller, in Asbury Park. He was 74 years old. Mr. Earley was the oldest undertaker in Philadelphia and became famous when he officiated at the funeral of President Lincoln. He also buried Disraeli Simpson. The deceased patented the casket now in general use. He came here five weeks ago for the benefit of his health.

Catholic Summer School.

Plattsburgh, N. Y., July 20.—The second week of the Catholic summer school opened in a most auspicious manner. Pontifical high mass was celebrated at St. John's church, with Archbishop Fabre of Montreal as celebrant. Dr. Loughlin of Philadelphia, high assistant priest, Rev. Daniel J. O'Mahoney of Lawrence, Mass., and Rev. Joseph Wilmas of Syracuse, N. Y., deacons of honor; Rev. Daniel A. Morrissey of Philadelphia, deacon of mass; Rev. J. M. Flemming, Lawrence, Mass., sub-deacon; Rev. E. Provost, Montreal, and Dr. Conaty, Worcester, Mass., master of ceremonies. During the mass Rev. A. P. Doyle of New York delivered an able sermon on Christian unity.

Salvation Army Criticized.

New York, July 20.—Reports have reached here of differences between the various missionary societies in India and the Salvation Army at work in the same field. The matter has been taken up by the American board of commissioners for foreign missions, and the Salvation Army is severely criticized in the official organ of the board for the current month.

The Maher-Chojniski Meeting.

San Francisco, July 20.—Peter Maher, the pugilist and his manager arrived in San Francisco from the east Saturday night. They were met by the officials of the National Athletic club and assured that the meeting between Maher and Chojniski would surely be arranged. Maher will begin training immediately at Sanelito.

To Consider the Silver Question.

Madagascar, July 20.—The agricultural congress which will meet here on September 17 will discuss, at the request of the Hungarian government, the question of the establishment of a silver currency, the desirability of an international agreement and the ratio of the metals.

Lowling's Room for Governor.

Waco, Kans., July 20.—The Sedgewick county populists formally elected a caucus Saturday in their delegation to vote in suitable resolutions. An effort to secure an endorsement of any support for the congressional convention was defeated.

POPULISTS DIVIDED

Sentiment for Bryan at St. Louis Very Strong To-day.

OPPOSITION NOW TALK OF BOLTING

Two Causes for Their Antagonism—First, It Would Obliterate Their Party, They Say, and, Second, the Fear That Democrats Would Not Act Fair.

St. Louis, July 20.—The situation this morning is Bryan and anti-Bryan, or more strictly speaking, Bryan against some member of the populist party yet to be named. Not more than 300 of the 1,300 delegates to the populist convention have arrived and these are individual members who constitute the advance guard of a number of delegations from the south and west. It is yet too early to predict with reasonable certainty what decision the convention may reach, but from the surface indications it would appear that the sentiment for Bryan will be very strong, if, indeed, his friends be not in a majority when the roll is called. The leaders, so far as they have arrived, are divided in their preference. Some are enthusiastic in his support. Among these are Gen. J. B. Weaver of Iowa, who made the race for the presidency on the populist ticket four years ago. Others, and among these are Mr. Taubeneck, the chairman of the national committee, impatiently repudiate the suggestion of Mr. Bryan's name and assert that his nomination would fall like a wet blanket upon the party.

Talk of a Bolt.

There was talk to-day of a bolt if Bryan be nominated. Bolting, or what is tantamount to bolting, has become the fashion in this campaign, and the populist leaders who oppose Bryan would discuss the probability with more indifference perhaps but for the objectionless presented to them by the republican and democratic conventions. Whom they would select in these circumstances they do not say. They have not gone so far as to consider the question. They do not hesitate to say, however, that a bolt would lose to the silverites the electoral votes of Kentucky, Tennessee, Alabama, and Florida, and certainly result in the election of McKidley. There is but one thing the anti-Bryan men fear—that is a possibility that some one may make a ringing speech full of apt allusions to the "Boy Orator of the Platte" and his long devotion to silver that may sweep the convention off of its feet and bring about his nomination in a whirlwind of enthusiasm. In such a case the list of malcontents might be so reduced as to make a bolt impossible, but this is not expected.

Cause of Opposition to Bryan.

The opposition to Bryan springs from two causes. The first cause is the complete obliteration of the party, which, it is claimed, would follow his nomination, and the second is a distrust in some quarters that the democrats would not act fairly with them in division of the electoral vote. Those who entertain this latter view are southern populists who claim to have been "counted out" by their democratic opponents when they have carried state and congressional elections and who fear that a repetition of such methods would be practiced again this year if McKinley fails to secure a majority of the electoral vote. The northern and western men entertain no such fear. Those from that part of the country who oppose Bryan do so because they believe that the party would be swallowed up in the greater prestige and prominence of the democratic party. They do not like the impression to go out that they have no men within their ranks of sufficient ability to carry their standard to victory.

Converted to Protectionists.

It is a curious fact that some of the southern populists have been converted from free traders to extreme protectionists through their affiliations of late years with the republicans. While some of these men place silver above the tariff as a national issue there are others who are unwilling to give their support to a tariff reformer, but say as between the two they would prefer McKinley. Generally speaking, however, the delegates care nothing for the tariff. With them the all-absorbing question is more money—more silver money. To secure this they will make any sacrifice and go to any extreme.

Big Carpet and Plush Mills Close.

Philadelphia, July 20.—For the first time in many years the entire establishment, excepting one department, of John & James Dobson, manufacturers of carpets and plush goods stopped work last Saturday owing to the lack of orders. Some 1,500 hands are thrown out of employment. The mills have been running on short time for quite a while. When running full time the mills employ 4,000 hands.

Struck by an Overhead Bridge. At Shrewsbury, Mass., July 20.—Patrick Fitzpatrick, a brickman on a freight train, and Jos. Acton of Omaha, a teamster who was riding with him, were struck by an overhead bridge and since near 10 o'clock Saturday night.

LOSS OF MEMORY.

Curious Case Discovered by the Identity of the Victim at Philadelphia.

Philadelphia, July 20.—A curious case of loss of memory was made public here by the identity of the victim being discovered. On March 6 last a well dressed young man accosted a policeman on the street and told him that he was lost and had no recollection of who he was or where he came from. The man was sober, perfectly rational and aside from his loss of memory well balanced mentally. The man's entire past life was completely erased from his mind, and he had no recollection of anything prior to the time he spoke to the policeman. He was sent to the Philadelphia hospital and as he was well educated and remembered what he had learned he was made clerk to the chief physician of the institution. He was given the name of "George Brant" and until Saturday was known by that name. Saturday Dr. Robinson of Lawrence, Kas., a resident physician at the hospital happened into the chief physician's office and recognized "George" as a fellow townsman and college chum of his own named Herbert C. Spencer. Spencer is a son of Selden P. Spencer of Lawrence, Kan., and the last his family heard from him was in Washington, D. C., on January 27 last. Mr. Spencer was telegraphed for and is now on his way here to take his son home. Spencer's disease is known as amnesia, or mind blindness. Spencer had no recollection of Robinson and could recall nothing of his past life when it was reported to him. Dr. Easterley, another townsman of Spencer, also identified him.

HON. J. H. WILLIAMS DEAD.

Ex-Governor of Maine Passes Away at His Home in Augusta.

Augusta, Me., July 20.—Ex-Gov. Joseph H. Williams died yesterday at "Oak Trees," his residence in this city. He was the only son of Hon. Ruel Williams and Sarah Lowell Cozz; he graduated from Harvard with honors in 1834, and after two years at Dana Law school, Cambridge, he entered the law office of his father. He was admitted to the Kennebec bar in 1837. He was a democrat until 1854, when he abstained from voting that ticket so long as slavery continued to shape the party issues. In 1858 the republicans elected him to the state senate. When Gov. Hamlin was elected to the United States senate, Mr. Williams became governor.

Wants $10,000 for Improper Vaccination.

New York, July 20.—Papers have been served upon H. Maitland Kersey, the New York agent of the White Star line, in a suit for $10,000 damages against the company. The plaintiff is William Fleming, who came to this country on the steamer Majestic, sailing from Queenstown on April 22. He was compelled to submit to vaccination while in the steerage of the steamer, and he claims that impure virus was used, and that he has since submitted to surgical operations as a result of the vaccination and may never again be able to use his arm.

Life-boats Must Be Safe.

New York, July 20.—Gen. Dumont, supervising inspector of the steamboat service, acting for the treasury department, has notified all supervising and local inspectors of steamboats, boat and raft manufacturers and others "not to accept or pass hereafter any lifeboat or lifeboat unless there shall be furnished with each a written guarantee over the signature of the builder that such raft or boat is constructed in accordance with the specifications."

Mine Trouble Expected in Indiana.

Terre Haute, Ind., July 20.—Trouble is expected at the Star City mine in Sullivan county to-day when an attempt will be made to put to work imported miners in the place of men in the bituminous fields who went out on strike May 1. The last time miners were brought in the state during a strike was to this same mine in 1892, on which occasion the neighboring farmers drove them away, and it is expected they will repeat the act.

Attempt To Blow up a Church.

Portsmouth, O., July 20.—The east wing of the Second Presbyterian church was shattered by a frightful explosion of gunpowder Saturday night. This is the fourth attempt within a week to blow up public buildings here, and the most successful one. William Lloyd was arrested on suspicion and narrowly escaped being injured.

Cut in Two by a Train.

New London, Conn., July 20.—The body of John W. Gerside of Portsmouth, N. H., was found beside the track of the Shore Line railroad near the Ocean avenue cut yesterday. The man had been run over by a train during the night. The head was cut off and the right arm and left hand gone.

For Trying To Defraud Uncle Sam.

San Francisco, N. M., July 20.—In the United States supreme court Judge Laughlin sentenced James Addison Peraltaservis, convicted of conspiracy to defraud the government in connection with the Peraltas and grant case, to two years' imprisonment and to pay a fine of $1,000.

GOSSIP FROM BERLIN

Rudini's Ministry Not Opposed to the Triple Alliance.

STRONGER THAN ITS PREDECESSORS

Germany Anxious for the Establishment of a Commercial Rapprochement Between Italy and France—The Paris Exposition in 1900.

Berlin, July 20.—Prince Hohenlohe, chancellor of the German empire, who is spending his holidays at his schloss in Alt-Aussee, Austria, has had an interview at Ischi with Emperor Francis Joseph of Austria. The chancellor and the emperor had a protracted meeting, and after their exchange of views they dined together. Since the interview it has transpired that communications have been exchanged between the governments at Vienna and Rome in regard to a meeting between Emperor Francis Joseph and King Humbert to take place in the autumn after the former receives Emperor William at Goedoeice. Naturally the influence of the recent changes in the Italian ministry will be associated with these interviews. The French view of the situation—that the Marquis Visconti-Venosta, the new Italian minister of foreign affairs, is less favorable to a continuance of the dreibund than was his predecessor in office, the Duke of Serrmoneta, and that the policy of Signor Luzzatti, the new Italian minister of the treasury, will include a commercial treaty with France—does not coincide with the official opinion here, which is based upon advices from Rome. According to these advices, instead of tending to opposition to the triple alliance, the newly constructed ministry of the Marquis di Rudini is stronger in favor of the dreibund than was the former ministry.

In No Danger of Disruption.

Although the Marquis Visconti-Venosta quitted the office of minister of foreign affairs in 1877 prior to Italy joining the dreibund, he was really the inspirer of that alliance. It was under the influence of his prompting that King Victor Emmanuel visited Berlin and Vienna in 1874, when the project of the dreibund was discussed. King Humbert has always held steadfast to his allies and certainly would not now accept a ministry whose views in regard to the continuance of the alliance were doubtful. The king has received the assurance of the minister that the foreign policy of Italy remains undisturbed. In regard to the policy of Signor Luzzatti, the German government desires to see the establishment of a commercial rapprochement between Italy and France, upon the ground that the military pact between Germany and Italy being secure, whatever would assist the prosperity of Italy and strengthen an ally to bear her military burden would be eminently desirable to Germany. Although Signor Luzzatti takes office pledged to provide a full military budget there is reason to state that communications are proceeding between the governments at Rome, Vienna and Berlin in regard to the Italian military economies, in which the other dreibund powers are interested, and it is very probable that the projected interviews between the monarchs will have reference thereto. The government in Berlin is absolutely satisfied with the new Rudini ministry.

Germany at the Paris Exposition.

The acceptance by Germany of an invitation to be present at the Paris exposition in 1900 is variously commented upon by the Berlin and provincial German press. The Tageblatt in its article upon the subject thinks that it indicates the security of peace for many years to come and a prospect of the ultimate reconciliation of Germany and France. The Hamburg Correspondent says that although exhibitors are fatigued with exhibitions, particularly after their experience at the World's fair in Chicago, it is an act of political courtesy and would testify to the friendly disposition of Germany toward France if Germany would take a large part in the exhibition. The Hamburger Nachrichten in an article written in a thoroughly Bismarckian vein, refuses to share in the view that Germany's taking part in the exhibition is necessary. German exhibitors, it says, ought not to be advertised to take part in the exhibition unless the German interests prompt them to do so. "Nobody," the paper adds, "can even remotely forget what may happen to France before 1900. Germans ought not to know a disposition to cultivate the French. It is a sentiment thrown away, is received with scant courtesy, and does not abate the vehemence of their desire for revenge. It is best to trust to impressing France by the strength of our army and the growing numerical dominance of the German people, who must keep in mind the fact that France will not hesitate to strike at their throats the moment she thinks she has a chance to win."

Impress William To Visit Krupp.

London, July 20.—Next month the emperor will visit Krupp, the famous manufacturer at Essen, for which event great preparations are being made by the Krupp and the local authorities.

Gladness Comes

With a better understanding of the transient nature of the many physical ills, which vanish before proper efforts—gentle efforts—pleasant efforts—rightly directed. There is comfort in the knowledge that so many forms of sickness are not due to any actual disease, but simply to a constipated condition of the system, which the pleasant family laxative, Syrup of Figs, promptly removes. That is why it is the only remedy with millions of families, and is everywhere esteemed so highly by all who value good health. Its beneficial effects are due to the fact, that it is the one remedy which promotes internal cleanliness without debilitating the organs on which it acts. It is therefore all important, in order to get its beneficial effects, to note when you purchase, that you have the genuine article, which is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only and sold by all reputable druggists.

If in the enjoyment of good health, and the system is regular, laxatives or other remedies are then not needed. If afflicted with any actual disease, one may be commended to the most skillful physicians, but if in need of a laxative, one should have the best, and with the well-informed everywhere, Syrup of Figs stands highest and is most largely used and gives most general satisfaction.

TO VOTE ON THE WATER QUESTION

Special Election To Be Held Tuesday, July 21st, at the Corporation Rooms.

Our hold-over city officials either do not desire that Democratic citizens shall read official advertisements or else wish to compel them to buy Republican newspapers, and publish all official notices in the two Republican papers, thereby violating the spirit of the city charter. Just now the official notice of the special election to vote upon the proposition to extend the water system is being published in the Press and Times, but Argus readers shall be kept posted in the matter all the same. Democratic taxpayers contribute their share towards the expense of advertising, but it goes to the Republican papers, which have undertaken in return the herculean task of supporting the present administration.

The special election to vote on the proposition to extend the water system according to the plan recommended after repeated surveys, by engineers Cross and Olney, will be held at the Corporation Rooms, on Tuesday, July 21st, from 2 until 8 o'clock.

The estimated cost of the construction of the dam, conduits and pipe lines, and securing the land and water rights is $150,000. Taxpayers only will have a right to vote.

BULLVILLE.

A Very Close and Exciting Game of Ball.

Correspondence Argus and MERCURY.

—The most interesting game of ball ever played at Bullville took place Saturday afternoon at the polo grounds, between the Centre Valleys and Bullvilles, the score being 4 to 3 in favor of Bullvilles. The Centre Valleys did not score until the eighth inning. By good playing of the Bullvilles they were kept from tying the score. The features for Bullville were the pitching of Woodward, who struck out twelve of the Centre Valleys and the batting of J. Sherr and Reynolds, and for the Centre Valleys the base running of Woodward, their catcher, and the coaching of the whole team. Following is the score by innings:

Centre Valleys..... 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0
Batteries—Bullville, Woodward and Wakeman; Centre Valleys, Thomas and Woodward. Umpire, Rev. Wm. H. Basso. Time of game, 1 hour and thirty-five minutes.

BEAVERKILL.

An Intox of City People—A Very Short Day—Ratly Sealed.

Correspondence Argus and MERCURY.

—City people are arriving daily. A number of the boarding houses are well filled. Among them are Davidson's, Davis', Foley's, Bond's and Murphy's.

—Farmers will not have more than half a crop of hay in this section.

—If the rainy season continues, its destructive work on the cattle will be cheaper than ever this fall.

—William Trucey was badly scalded in the acid factory at Shanksville, Monday morning. Mr. Bassett attended him. His injuries are not considered fatal.

What He Needed.

"You need a change of scene and air," said the physician, with the air of a man who knows what he is talking about.

"Thank you," returned the patient. "Would a trip to Winnipeg do me any good?"

"Certainly. A trip almost anywhere would do you good, and the sooner you start the better. Can you go at once?"

"Why, yes," replied the patient. "You see I just stopped over in Chicago for a day or two on my way to Winnipeg from New Orleans. I live in Winnipeg, you know."

Then the doctor smiled in a sly sort of way and said there would be no charge. —Chicago Post.

NEVER DESPAIR.

Discouragement Has Lost Many a Life—Fight It Out, to the Bitter End—Try Every Possible Means—A Middletown Romance.

Everybody makes mistakes and it is no proof that a man is going to die because his physician tells him so. Once a case pronounced incurable by the only, readily yields to the proper remedy. I simply a matter of getting the right thing and using it. Mr. A. P. Stoll, one of our citizens living on 150-ninth street, an engineer by occupation, found himself in a serious condition recently, suffering severely from kidney complaint. He had not gone to J. L. Mills' drug store for a box of Doan's Kidney Pills he would undoubtedly be suffering yet he says:

"It has cost me over $25 per year for medicine alone. I have tried most everything that I could not be cured. For two and one-half years I suffered terribly. My back was the worst but in time it affected the head and my eyesight. I was almost convinced that what my doctor said was true and was so discouraged at the result of all my efforts that when I commenced to take Doan's Kidney Pills I had not the least confidence in them. Well they did a wonderful amount of good. Assistance to any one in my condition is very welcome. I can heartily endorse Doan's Kidney Pills."

Kidney troubles are the bane of human existence, at their door can be traced more than half of the ill mankind is heir to. The insidious, underhand way kidney troubles often work before it shows itself, plainly shows what a hold it often gets on its victim.

When you get a backache from any cause or source, and it does not cease naturally in a day or two as general injuries do in a healthy body, you may decide at once, it is a kidney trouble, and attack it from the proper standpoint. And that is just the stage to take it in, too, for an immediate and radical cure.

Doan's Kidney Pills are for sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents, or mailed by Foster-McMillan Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

CHILDREN'S BIRTHDAYS.

Pretty Customs That Bring Joy to the Little Ones.

Grown people do not always appreciate what an event a birthday is in a child's life. Next to Christmas it is the red letter day of the year. A whole year never man's or woman's estate means a great deal to a child, and fills the boy or girl with an added dignity and sense of importance. Seven is so very much older than six!

In some households this perfectly natural delight is increased by the hearty sympathy of the parents. But there are other homes in which the all-important day passes unnoticed save by a careless mention, a mere reminder to the child that he has begun another year, and this remark may possibly be seasoned with the bitter sauce of a suggestion to an improvement in conduct. Not long since my heart was moved to pity by talking to a clever little boy, who told me that he was eight years old on that day.

"And what presents have you received?" I asked.

He looked surprised.

"Oh, we don't keep birthdays at our house," he replied. "My mother says it's foolish. Then she forgot that I am eight to-day until breakfast time this morning."

The more fortunate six-year-old at my side interrupted before I could check him.

"Forgot!" he exclaimed. "Why, my birthday came a little while ago, and my mamma made me a cake with six candles on it, and I had presents and lots of fun!"

Childhood is so brief, and the time when each recurring birthday is not a joy comes so soon that it is a pity not to make the anniversaries joyous to the little ones.

"Mamma," said one rapturous child, "you must be very glad I was born, because you have given me such a beautiful birthday!"

Of course "mamma" was glad, and being glad, why not show it? A child is never spoiled by the consciousness of a mother's love and delight in his existence.

A pretty custom is in vogue in some families. The child whose birthday is celebrated gives to each brother and sister some little token. It may be only an inexpensive toy, but it inculcates in the donor's heart the spirit of unselfishness, and teaches him the joy of giving as well as that of receiving.—Harper's Bazar.

etanus Bacilli Thrive in Long Island—Name Indicates a Year.

The death of a child in Brooklyn from lockjaw, said to have been caused by bacilli of the disease which existed in the soil of that region, calls attention again to a peculiar danger of some portions of Long Island, which has been mentioned at intervals of several years. In this instance the child, says the Hartford Times, a girl two years old, had been vaccinated. There was no reason to suspect the purity of the vaccine matter. It was used three weeks ago, and the child was getting on well until in playing in the dirt she scratched the vaccinated arm while her fingers were smeared with clay.

As to the existence of tetanus bacilli in the soil, the evidence seems to be ample. Health Commissioner Emery says the soil is full of these bacilli and that they caused several deaths which followed vaccination a year ago. Dr. Mayne, who attended the little girl, says: "The germs of tetanus are in the air as well as in the soil, but to breathe them is not necessarily fatal. In the vicinity of the south shore of Long Island horses, as well as human beings, have fallen victims to the bacilli. In the case of the little girl her finger nails contained the germ, which when brought into contact with the superficial abrasion at once inoculated her system with the poison." Dr. West, of the Brooklyn department of health, says the existence of the germ of tetanus has been noted for several years, more particularly in the east and southern tiers of Long Island. He adds: "Suffolk county, I believe, has the reputation of being the most affected spot. In the past three years in Brooklyn, there has been an average of nine fatalities from the work of tetanus bacillus annually. The germ, when exposed to the air, soon succumbs. When it attacks a wound it burrows down deep, for the purpose of keeping away from the air."

Coughs,

* Consumption.

The greatest cause of terror of the present day, formerly considered hopeless, is now conceded by the best physicians as curable under proper conditions. Its cause—a depleted condition of the system; a mal-assimilation of food; a wasting away of the tissues; an impoverishment of the blood. The result—a diseased condition of all the organs of the body; a formation of eating ulcers; and the result death from collapse or hemorrhage. But the cure is that greatest concentration into the least possible bulk of the vital elements of lean, raw beef. It is absorbed and nourishes with the least possible effort on the part of the stomach. It creates new tissue, enriches the blood, makes flesh, and by strengthening the great vital centres of the body enables them to perform their functions in a natural manner, and dispel disease. Thousands owe their life to its use.

DAILY ARGUS.

C. MACARDELL,
PUBLISHER.
GEORGE H. THOMPSON, EDITOR.
J. F. ROBINSON, CITY EDITOR.
A. E. NICKERSON, BUSINESS MANAGER.
MONDAY, JULY 20, 1896.

Republicans who have donned their thinking caps are of the opinion that the "blind sight" of the St. Louis convention had been as good as its "fore sight." It wouldn't have been William McKinley, but would have been Thomas Brackett Reed.

Senator Lee Parker announces his willingness to accept Bryan on the stump for the discussion of the financial question. Bryan is not likely, however, to accept the challenge. It would be all right to meet his opponent in joint debate, but it would be beneath the dignity of a presidential candidate to bandy words with an Ohio Senator.

The McKinley League of this State seems to have abandoned its scheme of fighting the Platt machine and invites contributions to enable it to make a campaign against free silver, independent of the regular organization, which it intimates is so actively engaged in holding on to the organization and capturing nominations that it is neglecting the more important part of the campaign and allowing free silver sentiment to spread among rural populations.

The Populist party by no means of a mind as to the advisability of nominating Bryan. He is favored by many of the leaders of the party, but the opposition to him is very strong and is based not on objections to him personally but on the grounds that the Democrats may not treat him fairly in the distribution of offices, and that to accept the Chicago ticket will be to practically disband their party, for which they hope much in the future. Many Southern delegates, who have become through recent affiliations with the Republicans rabid protectionists, object to Bryan's tariff reform ideas. In order to be thoroughly up to the times and in line with the other parties, the anti-Bryan men are already talking bold and are casting about for a candidate about whom they can rally. Not the least interesting bit of news from the convention is the rumor that Mark Hanna's agents are on the ground, well supplied with money, to assist in convincing the Populist delegates that the interests of their party can best be promoted by the nomination of an independent candidate. The Populist convention bids fair to be as full of excitement and interest as was the one at Chicago.

A THREE BOTTLE MAN.

Li Hung Chang has been amazing the Germans by his capacity for food and drink. At the banquet given him by the Electro-Technical society, of Berlin, he consumed two bottles of champagne and a part of a third within two hours and went away straight and sober. Although he is over 70, he has shown surprising vitality and seems never to get fagged out.

SAW A GHOST.

An Elderly Form That Frightened Two Middle-aged Ladies on a Lonely Road.

Mrs. E. C. Samuels and Mrs. M. L. Flukender drove to Bloomington, yesterday. On their return in the evening, between 8 and 9 o'clock, they noticed a very severe light.

Neither of the ladies have heretofore believed in the existence of ghosts, but they are sure if there is such a thing they saw one last night. It appeared on one side of the road a short distance ahead of them, and as they drew near floated across the road directly in front of the horse and then faded from sight.
